Dear Penny:

Hope you, Len and the children had a great holiday. Are the children back in school? Camron and Melanie had about a week off. Since Christmas isn't a holiday here I took Christmas day off. An upperclassman at the children's school babysat for them while I worked and she was very good with them. Moe actually wrote a rough draft of a letter to Ang, but never gets around to actually sending it. Moe's sister's son came down with hepatitis - he's back in school today after a ~~week~~ month's stay at home.

We hardly see Moe and when we do he's in a grouchy mood - he's been working on calculations for the house, getting up in a.m. to finish. He hired someone to do the work, but the man never did. Yesterday a building contractor came over to give us an estimate on the work. We have to decide in 10 days whether we want him or not. The house plans call for a fireplace on each floor (3 fireplaces) and the contractor didn't seem to know much about them. Do you still have that report on fireplaces which you showed me when you and Len were debating building a house? If you do, I would appreciate it if you could airmail it to us and I'll photocopy it and send it back to you. The fireplace is the only extra in the house - so I hate to spend the money on it if it won't actually work.

We are presently
 paying $\frac{1700T}{a\ month} = 240$, and though we are unhappy with it (because the street we're on has become a noisy
 through street, and we have no yard) we don't dare move
 because it means shelling out $\frac{400}{more\ a\ month}$, Mo's sister when she moved to Tehran looked at 30 apts, and now
 she's living in one of them for 3000T a month (nothing for less exists). Give our best to Marianne, Chris and Mike, and Len of course. Love
 Gloria
